

Story County is a community that cares about health.

642

individuals surveyed reported improved quality of life due to programs and services.

1,159

individuals were served through healthy food access or nutrition programs

5,776

individuals participated in mental health awareness programming

Mary Greeley Home Health provides educational opportunities and clinics to assist the aging clients of Story County. Care clinics help to keep seniors ambulatory, prevent emergency room visits, and aide in managing chronic diseases.

United Way of Story County