SCHOLARSHIPS

Latinos Unidos of Iowa has been supporting Latino youth who will be attending higher education in Iowa. During these past years, 100's of students have received assistance from LU of I, which is an all-volunteer organization. Full-time students may earn $1000.00; part-time students are eligible for $500.00, and many Iowa colleges match the LU of I funds. Students may apply scholarship funds as they earn a degree in Iowa: an associate's or bachelor's degree; master's or doctorates. This includes professional graduate studies (Law or Medical school for example) Previous scholarship recipients are encouraged to reapply. For more information contact Lena Avila Robison, Founder and President. email: iowalatina12@live.com.

A New Scholarship is available to "people with lived refugee experience" in Iowa who want to pursue a social work degree at the University of Iowa. This scholarship does not require the applicant to have a refugee visa - only the experience of forced displacement. This includes, but is not limited to, asylum seekers, undocumented folks, survivors of torture and trafficking, and folks with refugee visas and lottery visas. It does not require relocating to Iowa City. Students can be full time or part time and can use the scholarship for summer tuition too. For more information about the School of Social Work go to <https://socialwork.uiowa.edu/>. Interested applicants can contact the UI School of Social Work directly at social-work@uiowa.edu and ask about the ABCD Therapy scholarship or look at the information online.

Scholarships are available for Ames Parks and Recreation programs for school age youth (up to age 13) who are residents of the City of Ames and whose families meet the income guidelines as predetermined by MICA. The scholarship will pay 50% of the cost of the registration fees, up to $60 per year. Scholarships are also available for season swimming passes. For more information see: Ames Parks & Rec Program Guide.

Every Kid Sports is a national nonprofit that helps income-restricted families to pay for youth sports registration fees by providing up to $150 per children, up to three times a year, through their signature program, The Every Kid Sports Pass. To qualify, families must fill out an application at everykidsports.org and submit a picture of a Medicaid, SNAP, or WIC document with the child's name and a date from within 12 months. More information can be found on the flyer here.

MEDICAL

A new resource from the University of Minnesota: A guide of curated health resources for newly arrived Afghans and providers. This collection of fact sheets, posters, videos, audio recordings and other resources in English, Dari and Pashto supports the public health needs of Afghan new arrivals and the providers who serve them. These materials come from organizations across the country working to assist Afghan communities throughout every step of the resettlement process. To reduce duplication of efforts and to improve health messaging and outcomes, this list includes both existing materials and resources that are in progress.

Story County Public Health offers immunizations free of charge to individuals from birth through 18 years of age to families without insurance, or under-insured. This program is called Vaccines For Children (VFC). We offer VFC clinics on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month from 4PM to 6PM. We can also schedule outside of those hours. Please call 515-239-6730 to schedule an appointment.

Story County Public Health is pleased to offer translation services in a variety of ways. We have a Language Line via iPad with a live translator - it looks a lot like Facetime. We have "Pocket Talk" devices with 82 languages that offer audio and text translation. We have the more traditional Language Line via telephone, and we can also schedule in person translators if necessary.

We recently became a site for Raising Readers, and we offer books in English and Spanish.

Easterseals Resource for Iowa refugees and immigrants with a disability/ongoing medical concern

Easterseals Iowa has Durable Medical Equipment (DME) available at a nominal cost, which can be waived. The individual is then able to use the item for as long as they need it. Examples of DME include hospital beds, wheelchairs and grab bars.

Easterseals has a Lending Library of over 2,000 devices. They can help people identify what devices might be helpful for them and they can borrow the device for 30 days to find out if it helps or not. Some examples are devices to make it easier to prep and cook with one hand, an alarm that shakes the bed if you can't hear a typical alarm clock and canes that adapt for walking on uneven ground. For more information see assistive technology center.

Easterseals Iowa Assistive Technology Program Lending Library is offering a limited-time opportunity for individuals to access Smart-Tech for Daily Living for an extended period of time, beyond the typical 30-day trial period loan. Approved applicants may qualify for up to a $500 scholarship toward the purchase of Smart-Tech Devices for increased independence with tasks of daily living. These devices will remain the property of Easterseals Iowa but may reside with the applicant for the length of need. Priority will be given to recipients of Health and Community Based Services. FOR MORE INFORMATION: Easterseals Iowa Assistive Technology Program 866-866-8782 (Toll-Free) 515-289-4069 (TTY) atinfo@eastersealsia.org.
