

Story County is a community that cares about education.

447

children in UWSC funded programs improved or maintained their reading level

4,713

participants in community-based education programs said they had a better understanding than before underserved youth, ages K-8th grade, participated in summer enrichment programs

763

Ashton and her son Silas are enrolled in Lutheran Services in Iowa's Parents As Teachers program. Through this service, parents work with a Parent Educator to learn about their child's developmental needs, milestones, and more for a healthy future.